TELEGRAPHIC REPORTS.

[OF THE SOUTHERN PRESS ASSOCIATION.]

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1861, by J. B. Neathery, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Confederate States of the Northern District of Georgia.

Congressional.

Richmond, Nov. 11.
The Senate was not in session to-day, having adjourned over until Monday.

The House went into secret session after the announcement of a special committee to enquire into the expediency of making an appeal to the several States relative to the number of exempted State officers.

From Richmond.

Richmond, Nov. 11.
There is nothing definite from the Yankee Presidential election. A gentleman arrived from Maryland last night via the Potomac, reports that New York and Pennsylvania have gone for McClellan. A courier from below this afternoon says that the Yankee mail boat had not arrived to-day up to the time of his departure, so says Yankee pickets.

At auction to-day Confederate eight per cent. coupons long dates sold for one hundred and twenty, seven per cent. coupon bonds sold for seventy-nine. Bonds of the fifteen million loan coupons sold for one hundred and thirty. Ditto registered for one hundred and eighteen, twenty and a half; non-taxable bonds one hundred and thirty-two and a half; non-taxable certificates ninety-two and a half, all with interest added. Also cotton interest bonds for one hundred and eight, specie twenty seven and eight for one at private sale. Sixty seven thousand eight per cent. coupon bonds, long date one hundred and twenty-two and interest.

Exchange of Prisoners.

Savannah, Nov. 11.
C. J. Mulford the Federal commissioner of exchange met Capt. Hatch in the river to-day. Their interview was entirely satisfactory, and the exchange of prisoners commences to-morrow and will progress as rapidly as possible.

WAR NEWS.

From the Richmond Sentinel of the 11th.

The heavy firing heard yesterday was at Dutch Gap. Our men expected another "shorted salute" yesterday, and were fully prepared to return it.

There was the usual shelling and picket firing on the Southside Tuesday and yesterday.

As several Yankee prisoners were leaving the cars upon the arrival of the Petersburg train last evening, one of them exclaimed, "Well, I've beat old Grant, and got to Richmond before him."

FROM THE VALLEY.

All accounts from the Valley represent our men as in fine condition, and ready again to meet the enemy. Sheridan is preparing to leave the Manassas road, and is said to be falling back to Winchester. The army correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, writing from Middletown, Va., on the 1st inst., gives the following woful account of the condition of the Yankee cavalry: "Forage is very scarce in the army at present, the most of the horses being kept on less than half their usual allowance; and in some instances whole regiments of horses stand a long time without anything to eat."

"In the late skirmish between Col. Powell's command and the enemy's cavalry, in the Luray valley, Col. Kidd was sent, with his brigade, to his support, and on the way he lost fifty horses from sheer exhaustion. At this rate our cavalry cannot long remain an effective corps."

The same correspondent represents Mosby as being very active.

THE ARMY OF TENNESSEE.

Gen. Hood's army was marching in three columns, and is, no doubt, now in Tennessee.

The Montgomery Appeal, of the 2d, states that an officer arrived at Blue Mountain on Sunday morning from Hood's army, who states positively, that Decatur had been captured with four thousand prisoners, including three regiments of negroes. As it is known that the main body of Gen. Hood's army was marching in that direction, the news is plausible.

Gen. Ferguson's brigade.

Gen. Ferguson's brigade, of Wheeler's cavalry, had a hard fight on Tuesday evening last with the Yankee General Kilpatrick, at Ladage, 13 miles from Jacksonville, in which the enemy were driven from the field with a loss of (supposed) 25 killed and wounded. They withdrew on the Rome road.

The Winchester Bulletin, published at West Point, Ga., on the 2d inst., says: "If reports be true, our front now is in Tennessee, somewhere in the vicinity of Tullahoma, a little town on the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad, about 70 miles from Nashville, and a little more than 70 from Chattanooga. Tullahoma is in the edge of Coffee county, and contiguous are the counties of Warren, Franklin, Lincoln, Bedford and Maury—a rich section, and, with the exception of Bedford, filled with a brave Southern people. If Gen. Hood can hold the Nashville and Chattanooga road at this point a while, we do not see why he may not utterly destroy Sherman's communication as to make it necessary for him to wagon and foot it out via Sparta or East Tennessee."

FLAG OF TRUCE.

The flag of truce steamer merely touched at Varina the other day, landing the mails, but without giving opportunity to send any. It announced that the Confederate prisoners to be exchanged at Savannah were en route for that point.

We learn that it is not probable there will be any further communications by flag of truce boat in the James, for several weeks. Such exchanges as are made in the meantime, will be at points South.

THE MANASSAS RAILROAD.

We learn from Fauquier, that the Yankees have torn up the track and carried off the rails of the Manassas Gap railroad as low down as to Thoroughfare Station. They are supposed to be carrying the iron to the Winchester railroad.

FROM THE FRONT.—We have been favored with the following items of a private letter of November 3d giving intelligence obtained from a field officer just in from Beauregard's department.

Hood's army is at Columbia, Tenn., with Sherman's force ninety-eight miles in his rear, and greatly demoralized.

Gen. Forrest is at Paducah, Kentucky, destroying Yankee property by the wholesale. While General Walker, of Magruder's army is en route to join Hood at Columbia or Nashville, Tenn. Gen. Beauregard declares he will winter his army in Tennessee.

Corinth is our point of concentration, to which place all the hospitals have been ordered to go immediately from Macon.

Gen. Price has whipped the Yankees at Kansas City. He will be reinforced by Magruder's command and winter in Missouri.—Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel 9th.

Vol. I.] RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1864. [No. 175.

POETICAL.

From the Solina Dispatch.
TO THEE, O GOD!
TO THEE, O GOD!

In humble prayer:
O, save our struggling, bleeding land;
Our noble, suffering, patriot band,
Preserve them with Thy care.

O, save the South, and let the day
Of peace appear;
Let victory on our banners hang;
May our brave ones like the stern rock stand,
With hearts to do and dare.

Cheered by Thy smile we must succeed,
Victorious ever prove.
The Yankee despot's boasted might
Falls before the arm of right
And Thy approving love.

Grant that the night break fast away
And day appear.
Then will our songs of triumph rise,
Like holy incense, to the skies,
For Thy preserving care.

Parties interested may materially aid me in the investigation of their claims, if at the time of forwarding their paper to me, they will inform me of the date of the death of the deceased, where he died, whether or not they or any one for them, have received the personal effects which deceased had with him at the time of his death, and whether or not he was a non-commissioned officer or private, and had ever received the State's bounty.
